

500 Library Code of Conduct

The Whistler Public Library is committed to being a place of discovery and connection for everyone. Let's work together to create a welcoming and safe library we can all enjoy!

During a visit to the library, I agree to:

- Respect others and their use of the library
- Accept that we are all different and have individual tastes and opinions
- Be responsible for the people in my care and my belongings
- Take up the space of one person
- Dress appropriately for a public space, including shoes and shirts
- Follow health & safety protocols
- Bring only service animals into the building
- Exit the library promptly when asked to do so

During a visit to the library, I will not:

- Be abusive to others
- Use drugs or alcohol
- Carry or use a weapon
- Engage in disruptive or illegal behaviour
- Damage or steal library property
- Record or photograph others without consent

I understand that if I choose not to follow this Code of Conduct, consequences may include being asked to leave the Library.
